Re: 2024 Welcome Letter, Membership Dues and Deadlines

Dear New Mexico Collaborative Practice Group Member:

I hope you enjoyed the holidays and are looking forward to the opportunities and connections we will make in 2024. Although sometimes it feels like we are still trying to regain some of the momentum we lost during the pandemic, we had some exciting accomplishments in 2023:

- We hired Melissa Valles-Relyea, President of M Marketing (mmarketing.guru), to take on our much needed marketing campaigns. From social media presence, to updating our archaic website, to setting up our networking meetings, to helping us recruit new members, Melissa is adding a spark to our association. Keep an eye out for more announcements about our initiatives as the year unfolds!
- Kathryn Terry (Terry & deGraauw, P.C.) and Jessica Roth (Armstrong, Roth, Whitley, Johnstone, LLC) continued their efforts for our Collaborative movement, conducting the Collaborative Family Law class, offered by the UNM School of Law. The class will be offered again this Spring semester: March 1-3, 2024. For more information go to: <https://lawschool.unm.edu/cle/upcoming.html>
- This year we had a tie for the 2023 Best Collaborative Practitioner of the Year: Emma Whitley & Renee Gwyther! Congratulations to them, as well as to all our nominees!

Thank you to all our NMCPG Board Members of 2023—your continued contributions of your time and energy to our cause is much appreciated! Rachel Biro (Treasurer), Morgan Honeycutt (Vice President), James Bristol (Secretary), Bobbie Batley, Ken Gilman, Kim Padilla, Maria Montoya Chavez, Julie Wittenberger, Gretchen Walther, and Emma Whitley. In 2024 we look forward to working with our new Board Members: Jensen Wallace & Mariah Poole.

All great organizations are dependent on their members to be active and involved – and there’s never a shortage of need for passion and commitment! We have several committees that can use leadership and assistance, and there’s no better way to network with your colleagues than working together to accomplish a shared goal. Please consider serving on one!

NMCPG COMMITTEES (CHAIRPERSONS)

- Membership (vacant)
- Communications (vacant)
- Community Outreach (vacant)
- Advanced Symposium (Bobbie Batley)
- New Collaborative Practitioner (vacant)
- Marketing (Rachel Biro & Ingrid Roosild)
- Alternative Fee Committee (Ingrid Roosild)

The NMCPG serves in many capacities! Membership in a statewide organization provides family law attorneys, financial experts and mental health professionals with the tools and support to develop and participate in the Collaborative Divorce process:

- Networking: NMCPG provides a group of like-minded professionals that share the values of divorcing clients in a respectful and interest-based fashion;
- Website promotion: As a member of NMCPG, you are listed on the NMCPG website directory as a Collaborative Professional. This is a great resource for promoting our members and Collaborative Divorce (nmcollaborativedivorce.org);
- Marketing: Promotes Collaborative Practice by raising awareness of the availability of Collaborative Practice in New Mexico;
- Sponsorship: Supports and sponsors local group collaborative efforts, education and recruitment;
- Education: NMCPG organizes educational symposiums with top-level, national speakers for advanced practitioners, entry level training for new practitioners and workshops to further hone and advance our skills as Collaborative Practitioners;
- Organization: Centralizes administrative functions such as dues renewals;
- IACP member benefits include national and international access to the best current thinking in Collaborative Practice, opportunities for networking and educational forums, a personal profile page on their website and a subscription to the acclaimed Collaborative Review packed with articles to enhance your practice;

Included with this letter is your combined dues renewal form. Dues renewal notices are for the combined state (NMCPG) and national/international (IACP) groups. As with previous years, we request that you do not respond to any dues renewal notices from IACP as we take care of submitting payment to each organization on your behalf.

All members will receive a QuickBooks Invoice for 2024 dues from nmcollaborativedivorce@gmail.com. If you do not receive one, please contact Rachel Biro to request she re-send the invoice at rachel.biro@REDW.com. Don't forget to print, sign and forward your renewal form to us!

Membership deadlines are as follows:

- The "early bird" registration fee deadline is March 1, 2024.
- The final deadline to submit your dues is March 15, 2024. If we do not receive your renewal by March 15th, you will be removed from the NMCPG website and email distribution lists.

The NMCPG Board is hopeful that 2024 will bring more opportunities for our members to meet, network, learn, and continue our work to promote Collaborative Divorce in New Mexico.

Sincerely,

Ingrid L. Roosild
